

I object to the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law, that is now a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission.

The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

Please rule against the CBA and support the taxpayers of Indiana in their request for privacy in their homes.